VICTIM INFORMATION & NOTIFICATION DELIVERY (VINE)

The Jacksonville Beach Police Department is committed to the development, implementation, and continuation of appropriate victim/witness assistance programs and activities. The department recognizes that victims of crime have specific rights. Some of these rights, as outlined in FSS 960.001, are as follows:

1. The right of the victim to receive information on local community services to include counseling, shelter, legal assistance, or other types of help, depending on the particular circumstances.
2. The right of the victim to receive information regarding the availability of crimes compensation, as applicable for victims or crimes or their relatives when the victim is deceased;
3. The right of the victim or witness to receive information regarding the victim's role within the criminal justice or juvenile justice system, to include what the victim may expect from the system and what the system may expect from the victim;
4. The right of the victim or witness to receive information regarding the stages of the criminal and juvenile justice process which are significant to the victim or witness and the manner in which information about such stages may be obtained;
5. The right of the victim, who is not incarcerated, including the next of kin of a homicide victim, to be informed, present, and heard when relevant, at all crucial stages of a criminal or juvenile proceeding, to the extent that the right does not interfere with the constitutional rights of the accused;
6. The right that a victim, or the next of kin of a victim, may not be excluded from any portion of any hearing, trial or proceeding pertaining to the offense based solely on the fact that such person is subpoenaed to testify, unless, upon motion, the court determines such person's presence to be prejudicial;
7. The right that incarcerated victims will be informed of the crucial stages of the criminal and juvenile proceedings and be afforded the opportunity to submit written statements at all crucial stages of the proceedings;
8. The right of a victim to a prompt and timely disposition of the case as long as it does not interfere with the constitutional rights of the accused;
9. The right to be free from intimidation. If a victim/witness is being threatened or intimidated, he/she should contact the Jacksonville Beach Police Department or the nearest law enforcement officer;
10. The right that each victim who has been scheduled to attend a criminal or juvenile justice proceeding will be notified as soon as possible by the agency or person scheduling the appearance of any change in scheduling which will affect his/her appearance; and
11. The right to receive advance notification of judicial proceedings relating to the arrest and/or release (to include community control and work release) of the accused as well as the proceedings in the prosecution.

HOW DOES A VICTIM CALL VINE?

The VINE telephone number is

353-8463 (VINE) or 1-800-511-1680

Victims of any crime may determine if an inmate is in the custody of the Duval County Pre-Trial Detention Facility. After dialing the VINE number with a touch-tone phone, callers simply follow the instructions given by the system. Callers will be asked to provide the inmate's jail number or name.

HOW DOES A VICTIM REGISTER TO BE NOTIFIED BY VINE?

Victims may get registered for VINE in one of two ways:

1. Victims of any crime may register to be notified by phone of an inmate's release. Using a touch-tone phone, dial the VINE number and follow the instructions given by the system. VINE will ask for a phone number and a four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN) to be used during notification calls. Victims may register additional phone numbers.
2. Victims who wish to be notified and have reported an offense involving domestic violence, murder, stalking, sexual battery, kidnapping or false imprisonment will provide officers with notification information and a four-digit PIN. Those victims will be automatically registered when the offender is arrested in Duval County. Only those victims of the crimes listed above may be notified by mail of the inmate's release. Those who have changed their address and wish to be notified by mail must appear at the Pre-Trial Detention Facility in person. (Call 630-5747 for more information.)
