Chief of Police

This annual report for calendar year 2013 documents activities and efforts by employees of the Jacksonville Beach Police Department to accomplish the department's mission, "Working with Citizens for a Safe Community."

The police department is a nationally-accredited, full-service agency employing 95 personnel; including 61 full-time police officers, 23 full-time civilians, and 12 part-time employees. The department has three divisions: Patrol, Detective, and Services.

Police officers assigned to the Patrol Division respond to citizen calls for service and also take proactive steps to prevent crime and capture lawbreakers. They conduct the initial investigation of crimes, write reports, investigate traffic crashes, and issue citations. They try to prevent crimes utilizing patrol efforts by vehicle and on foot, creating a visible law enforcement presence.

Members of the Detective Division conduct follow-up investigations of crimes. General Investigations Team detectives investigate crimes such as homicide, robbery, burglary, theft, etc. Community Response Team detectives primarily investigate vice, narcotics, and quality of life crimes. Members of both teams are drawn from the ranks of patrol officers and receive specialized investigative training to handle the more serious crimes reported to the police department.

Employees assigned to the Services Division provide support services such as radio communications, records keeping, property and evidence maintenance, animal control, school crossing protection for children, and training for employees, among others.

The goal of every employee of the police department is to help create a safe community for every person who lives in, works in, or visits Jacksonville Beach. We encourage interested persons to contact any member of the police department with recommendations for improvements in the services we provide.

* The data appears disproportionate compared to previous years, however improvements were made to the methods in which burglary statistics were obtained. In preceding years, the records management system was not capturing all possible subsections of the burglary statute which caused an underrepresentation of data; therefore, the system was updated to include any omitted subsections. In actuality the number of burglary offenses decreased by 17.0% from 2011 to 2012 and by 20.5% from 2012 to 2013. *

Volunteer Programs

The Citizen Police Academy began in 1998 with the goal of making citizens more aware of the role of the police department in their community. During the twelve-week course, the students learn about patrol operations, investigations, S.W.A.T., K-9, crime scene processing, and so much more. Through 2013, we have completed 31 classes with a total of 893 graduates.

Session 30—Graduated on April 9, 2013

Session 31—Graduated on October 3, 2013

Graduates of the Citizen Police Academy are eligible to join the Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association (CPAAA). The (CPAAA) was formed by graduates in 2000 as a way to volunteer for the police department and help the community. In 2013, (CPAAA) members volunteered over 8,112 hours to help the department complete its mission. Combined with the Citizens On Patrol (COPs), they totaled 12,233 hours of volunteer service to the community.

Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association

The CPAAA and its members organized several annual events for the department in 2013. The first event of the year was the Fishing Rodeo. Once again the event was an overwhelming success. Kids of all ages were able to learn how to fish and participate in numerous activities. The best event was the interaction between the officers and the children of the community.

The CPAAA hosted a barbecue at Southbeach Park for the members of the community. This allowed the community members to interact with the employees of the department in a social setting. The attendance was estimated to be well over one hundred citizens.

The Halloween Party and Kid's Christmas Party hosted by the CPAAA and the department were some of the best attended events all year. The attendance for each event was estimated in the hundreds for 2013. Mr. And Mrs. Clause were also in attendance taking photographs with the children.

Citizens On Patrol

Members of the Citizens On Patrol (COP) unit are trained volunteers, selected from the CPAAA, who conduct traffic direction and control, parking enforcement, and proactive patrolling. COP volunteers receive an initial 65 hours of specialized training on patrolling techniques, Florida laws, traffic control, and report writing. COP members volunteered approximately 3,961 hours in 2013.

Special Programs

S.W.A.T. Team (Special Weapons and Advanced Tactics)

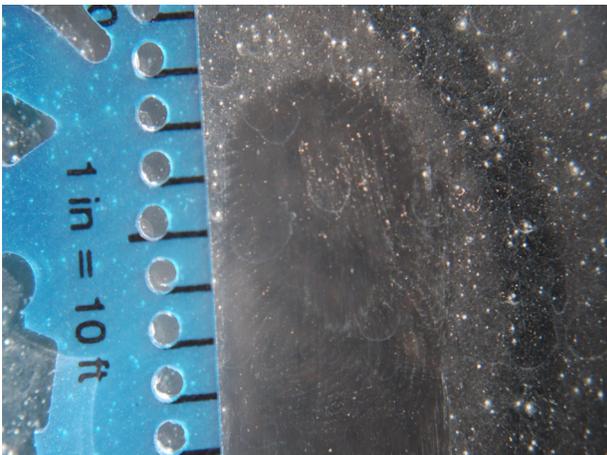

Police officers assigned to the Special Weapons and Advanced Tactics Team (S.W.A.T.) are selected after completing a mentally and physically challenging process. There must be a unanimous vote by all team members before a new member can be recommended to the S.W.A.T. Commander and Chief of Police for selection. In addition to their regular duties, S.W.A.T. officers must constantly train to maintain their skill level to be able to handle high-level threats and high-stress situations. S.W.A.T. officers also deploy to assist other agencies as a secondary resource in tactical situations that may arise.

Evidence Technician/Traffic Homicide Investigations

Selected members of the department tackle additional duties as evidence technicians or traffic homicide investigators. They utilize specialized training at crime scenes and traffic crashes to collect evidence, take measurements, and use mathematical formulas to ensure thorough and concise investigations.

Honor Guard

The Honor Guard is a highly trained, uniformed group of officers who volunteer their time to honor our fallen heroes. The Honor Guard is responsible for carrying out ceremonial functions involving the police department. These include Color Guard, dedication ceremonies, police funerals, and Police Memorial Week ceremonies. There are currently 16 officers who comprise the Honor Guard. Members come from all divisions of the department.

K-9

The Jacksonville Beach Police Department has two police service dog teams. The dogs and their handlers are carefully chosen and go through a difficult, yet challenging certification process before being deployed for patrol service. The dogs are certified in suspect apprehension and drug detection. Additionally, the police service dog is an exceptional asset during any high-risk operation.

D.A.R.E.

(Drug Abuse Resistance Education)

This program is a police officer-led series of classroom lessons that teaches children how to resist peer pressure and live productive drug- and violence-free lives. D.A.R.E. officers go to local kindergarten through 4th grade classes once per year for "visitations" to interact with the kids. Beginning with 5th graders, officers teach a 10-lesson program that culminates in a graduation ceremony. When kids enter the 7th grade, they receive a 10-lesson review and update on their 5th grade lesson program.

Accreditation

The Police department was first accredited by the National Commission on Law Enforcement Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) in 1995 and has maintained its accredited status since that time. Each member of the department is responsible for ensuring that policies and procedures are followed. There are over 470 standards the department must meet to remain nationally accredited. The Police Department was named a Flag Ship Agency by CALEA in the past. In the last accreditation the agency was awarded Meritorious Accreditation Status. The agency will be up for recertification in 2015.
